AT WALTERS WICKER
THE FUTURE IS NOW

Walter's Wicker, Inc., manufacturers of exclusive high-end wicker, rattan, woven leather and resin furniture for the residential and contract markets, introduces Luli, a meticulously crafted woven leather club chair of generous proportions.

Luli rests on a metal frame with four widely spaced rounded chrome legs. The openwork, thin stripped woven leather gives the chair a basket-like appearance. Wide and rectangular in form, Luli offers both style and comfort with a futuristic flavor.

Featured in the photo in chocolate brown, Luli is available only as shown. The collection includes a matching sofa. Loose seat and back cushions are the customer's own material.

Dimensions:
38"W X 37"D X 28.5"H

Walter's Wicker, Inc., maintains showrooms in the D&D Building in New York and the DCOTA in Dania, Florida. They are represented in designer showrooms nationwide.
