GRAPES AND ROSES FROM NICHOLAS ANTIQUES

Nicholas Antiques, a premier source for lighting, mirrors, furniture, accessories, pillows and custom lampshades, introduces two botanically inspired chandeliers; (H2 007), a three light wrought iron chandelier featuring a leaf and rose design (H2 009) and a five light wrought iron offering featuring a leaf and grape motif. The rose chandelier is available with either a painted gold or multi color finish. The grape chandelier is available only as shown with touches of gilt metal and black.

Manufactured in London by Besselink & Jones, these attractive chandeliers bring the warmth and beauty of the outdoors inside. Luxurious and leafy, the fixtures are a celebration of fruit and flowers and are ideal choices for dining room, entry hall, bedroom or sunroom.

The company features an extensive collection of antique and reproduction chandeliers, sconces, table lamps and floor lamps in vast array of exquisite styles, as well as some contemporary lighting designs.

Their constantly expanding inventory is acquired from sources worldwide and is available through architects and designers. Nicholas Antiques is the United States representative for London manufacturer, Besselink & Jones, as well as French manufacturer, Galerie des Lampes.

Nicholas is also known for their restoration of antique lighting which is done and stocked on the premises of the D&D Building in New York City.
